

Functions of the Student Grievance Committee (SGC)

The committee is authorized to address and resolve grievances raised by students, faculty, and non-teaching staff.

Students are advised to report their grievances to their respective tutors, who will escalate the matter to the committee for necessary action.

Direct petitions to the Principal are discouraged at the initial stage. Students should first utilize the Grievance Redressal Cell.

If the issue remains unresolved, they may then approach the Principal.