

Students may lodge grievances related to both academic and non-academic matters, including:

- Timely issuance of documents such as duplicate mark sheets, transfer certificates, conduct certificates, and other examination or scholarship-related issues.
- Dues, payments, and financial matters concerning the library, hostels, or other services.
- Concerns regarding campus facilities such as sanitation, food quality, transport availability, and instances of unfair treatment or harassment by staff or peers.